Turn the Page: Looking Backward

How do I process this past year before turning the page? (Joshua 4:1-24)

1. Reflect on where I've been this past year – even if I'd rather forget. (Joshua 4:1-3)

Eugene Peterson: "We don't learn from experience. We learn from reflecting on experience."

- As I reflect on 2020, what have I seen God doing? Can I find 12 "stones" marking God's work?

  _____
  _____
  _____

- How will I actively celebrate God's faithfulness this year? (Joshua 4:9)

  _____
  _____
  _____

2. Repeat the stories of God's goodness so I can teach others. (Joshua 4:6-7; 1 Peter 3:15 NLV)

Who needs to hear the story of how God has miraculously worked in my life this year?

3. Refocus my heart on God to build courage for whatever circumstances I face next. (Joshua 4:24)

How will I choose to memorialize 2020?

What work did God start in me in 2020 that I want Him to continue in 2021?

What have I learned that I don't want to forget?
