

A Better Life: Wonderful News for the Persecuted

Matthew 5:10 (Wright's Translation) Wonderful news for people who are persecuted because of God's way! The kingdom of heaven belongs to you.

How do I respond when I face opposition in my faith?

- 1. God celebrates those who _____ to the way of Jesus even when opposition comes. (Matthew 5:10-12)

Persecution is not a rejection of you or me; persecution is a rejection of Jesus.

Opposition reminds me that the kingdom of heaven is mine. (Matthew 5:10; John 10:9-10 NLT)

How do I respond when I face opposition in my faith?

- 2. Fight back _____ did.
(Matthew 5:43-48; Acts 5:41 MSG)

- Jesus fought back with love. (Matthew 5:44)
- Jesus fought back with prayer. (Matthew 5:44)
- Jesus fought back with kindness. (Matthew 5:46-47)
- Jesus fought back with forgiveness. (Luke 23:43)
- Jesus fought back with endurance. (Hebrews 12:3)
- Jesus fought back with joy. (Matthew 5:12)

How do I stay committed to Jesus' ways even when someone hurts me?

- Connect with Jesus through the persecution.
- Pray for the persecuted and the persecutors.
- Channel your hurt toward helping someone else who is being persecuted.
- Surround yourself with people who can encourage you.
- Remember:
  - Jesus is your defense in the face of accusation (Isaiah 12:2)
  - Jesus is your strength when you are weak. (Exodus 15:2; 2 Corinthians 12:9-11)
  - Jesus is your security when you feel insecure. (Proverbs 3:26)
  - Jesus is your companion when you feel completely alone. (James 4:8)