

Newbreak 360 Complacency

“The tragedy of life is not found in failure, but complacency. Not in living above your means, but below your capacity.”

Complacency stops progress and prevents us from living out God’s purpose.

How do I push past complacency to experience God’s best for my life?
(Exodus 3:1-6 NIV)

- 1. Identify the areas of my life where I have become too comfortable.
(Exodus 3:1 NIV)

In what ways have I settled for a stagnant version of life?

- 2. Focus on God’s vision and mission for me. (Exodus 3:7-10 NIV)

Don’t let excuses get in the way of living with purpose.
(Exodus 3:11, 4:1, 4:10 NIV)

- 3. Step into what God has next. (Exodus 4:18-20 NIV)

My true purpose is lived out when I am stretched. (Luke 9:23 NLT)

“God doesn’t call the qualified, but He qualifies the called.”

In what way is God wanting to stretch you for His purposes?
