

Help: The Perspective of Worship

How can worship change my perspective so I can deal with my reality?
(Acts 16:22-25)

- 1. Worship amplifies the truth that God is _____ than my _____. (Acts 16:25)

Instead of blaming God, Paul and Silas were singing to God!

Whatever we don't turn into praise turns into blame.

What's our "normal response" to God when life gets overwhelming?

- 2. Singing _____ to God in ways that nothing else can. (Ephesians 5:18-19a; Psalm 59:16)

Music is what feelings sound like.

God has wired our souls to be moved by music!

Worshiping God can bring comfort in the midst of overwhelm.

- 3. Worship _____ God's _____ in the midst of spiritual battles. (Acts 16:26)

Praise opens the door for others to see God. (Acts 16:27-33)

Praise paves the way to joy for you and others. (Acts 16:34)