

The Book of James: Living Authentically
“Mother’s Day”
James 4:1-12 (CSB)

- 1. When in conflict, ask WHAT is the source, not WHO is the source. (James 4:1 CSB)

Acknowledge my “knee-jerk reactions” that contribute to conflict or frustration.

- 2. Identify where God’s values conflict with the world. (James 4:4-6 CSB)

- 3. Strive for peace with one another. (James 4:7-8 CSB)

Pray for the person you have conflict with

Go to the person you have conflict with

Build up the person you have conflict with

Romans 14:19 (NIV) Let us therefore make every effort to do what leads to peace and to mutual edification.
