

Summer in the Psalms

Psalm 73

Have you ever had those weeks where one thing after another happens? What happened to "God is good, all the time?" Listen in as Pastor Markus Witherspoon unpacks Psalm 73 and helps us see how to bring together God's goodness in the midst of a faith crisis.

In this message, you will be encouraged and challenged to:

- Wrestle through our pains and doubts, while not surrendering the goodness of God.
- Work out our envy and frustrations in worship to God.

Let's go in our Bibles: Psalm 73 (NLT)

1. Reflect on what has my focus.

Psalm 73:2–3 (NLT) 2 But as for me, I almost lost my footing. My feet were slipping, and I was almost gone. 3 For I envied the proud when I saw them prosper despite their wickedness.

2. Go to God for understanding.

Psalm 73:16–17 (NLT) 16 So I tried to understand why the wicked prosper. But what a difficult task it is! 17 Then I went into your sanctuary, O God, and I finally understood the destiny of the wicked.

Psalm 73:25–26 (NLT) 25 Whom have I in heaven but you? I desire you more than anything on earth. 26 My health may fail, and my spirit may grow weak, but God remains the strength of my heart; he is mine forever.

Psalm 73:28 (NLT) But as for me, how good it is to be near God! I have made the Sovereign Lord my shelter, and I will tell everyone about the wonderful things you do.
